“R3D3MPTION”

Odus offers expertise as a preacher, organizer, and team builder.

Odus powerfully presents messages from God's Word that both uplift and challenge. Whether he is speaking to a small group of pastors, a Bible study group or a large gathering, Odus' message remains clear and committed to the authority of scripture and God's heart for the nations.

Odus offered leadership through 13 years of collegiate ministry at Oklahoma Baptist University and the product is a large number of former students serving as pastors, missionaries and ministry volunteers in Oklahoma and around the world.

A native of Ardmore, OK, Compton graduated from OBU in 1987 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology. He became OBU's Assistant Campus Minister in 1989. He was Baptist Student Union Director at Maui Community College in Maui, HI, 1987-88.

Compton's wife, the former Paula Kay Paschall, is a 1989 OBU graduate. They have eight children, Blake, 17; Caleb, 13; Lindsey, 10; Rachel, 8; Micah, 7; Nate, 5; Noelle, 3; and Charity, 20 months.
